

Whitestone Village, Groveland, MA

Age-Restricted Community

Hassle free, maintenance free, sense of community – these components are the major selling points that has made this active adult community, located in Groveland, MA, such a sought after location to settle into.

The target audience is adults above the age of 55. The design was created to give the neighborhood feel but also offered plenty of space to those who may have been downsizing. The open floor plans offer every individual ample space to entertain or just to spread out. A state of the art clubhouse is located on the premises, complete with a gym, a card room, and a computer center. This amenity is a highlight of the project and is not usually found in similar developments.
